If the pending legislation should become a law, there is no power exists in any officer of the Reversional to protect from violence the lieverament to protect from violence the officers of the United States engaged in the discharge of their duties. Their rights and duties under the law will remain, but the national Gevernment will be rewritted to the sational Gevernment will The States may employ total initiary and civil power to keep the peace and to enforce the laws at state elections. It is now proposed to deny to the United States even the accountry civil authority to protect national elections. No sufficient reason has been given for this discrimination in favor of a state and against national authority.

The president also discusses the propriety of tacking "riders" to appropriation bills, and asserts that it is an unnecessary and vicious policy. The elected paregraph of the message is as follows:

Belleving that this bill is a dangerous-violation of the spirit and meaning of the constitution, I am compelled to r turr It to the house in which it originated without my approval. THE INAUGURAL "GERMAN,"

The Parkingship Brent of the Second which Occurred Last Right.

The elegant residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. Burrows, on West North street last night, was the scene of one of the most brilliant and enjoyable social events that has occurred in Decatus for many a day. It was the occasion of the inaugural German, a very fashionable and popular dance in larger cities. It embraces a multitude of figures, the changes and favors of each being antirely different. The following figures were denoted last night to spleadid music furnished by Prof. Goodman's orchestra: "Raffle," "Garter," "Tunnel," 'Serpent," "Bower," "Scarf," "Grand Round," closing with the "Grand Chals." The "favore" were very beautiful and de cidedly sovel.

The German was led by Miss Ida Burrows, who gave the party in honor of wisiting friends.

home at about 8 o'clock this morning, perfectly delighted with the affair from beginning to end.

The following guests from abroad were present: Misses Eva Greene, Springfield; Lizzie Madduz, Carlyle; and Jessie Gillett, Elkhart. Decatur guests: Misses Belle Ewing, Nallie Durfee, Bettle Ehrman, Mollie Barnes, Lizzie Vennigerhoiz, Nettie and Dessis Bowers. Rose Judson, Alice Roberts, Flora Race, Nellie Shellaharger, Nellie Johns, Eva Bunn, and about 20 married couples. Gents George A. Challis, P. H. Brueck, John Clugston, highly esteemed for his learning and Edgar Ewing, Holmes Cloyd, Brad. Dubois, Chas. Challis, Harry Cres, Albert Barnes, Pugh Gorin, Theron A. Powers, Herbert Bartholomew, John B. Bunn, Jerome Anderson, Walter Bashforth, Harry J. Caldwell, Ed. Sloan and Frank Anderson.

SOCIAL SURPRISE.

There was a very agreeable surprise party at the residence of Rev. N. S. Haynes, on North Edward street, last night, given in honor of Miss Emma Frazier, of Paris, Ill., sister of Mrs. Haynes. There were about twelve couples present who, on invitation of Miss Nannie Odor, met at her home early in the evening, and proceeded in a body to the residence above mentioned. The evening was passed very pleasantly, and an elegant supper was served at a seasonable hour. The following were among the guests

Misses Amma Swearingen, Mollie Logan, Maggie Oren, Lottie Baxter, Mamie Rogers, Lillie Corman, Alice Albeitz, Alice Tyler, Mollie Odor, Gents. I. D. Walker, Corley, A. Clerk, Geo. Tucker, Charles Bear, Frank Hall, Mr. Drake, Mr. Cherry, and Mr. Humphrey.

POLICE MATTERS.

The trial of Mrs. May Howard, before Justice Curtis last evening, charged with selling intexicating liquors in violation of the city ordinance, resulted in a conviction, and the woman was fined $25 and costs. In default of payment she was lodged in the calaboose. She was defended by Hon A. B. Bunn and Thomas Lee, Esq.

Mrs. May Howard, Ida May and Chas. C. Davis are on trial before Justice Curtis to-day, charged with keeping and being inmates of a house of ill-fame.

DIED.

KNIPPLE.—At Wheatland, Ilis, Tuesday morning, April 29, at 3 o'clock, Miss Laura Knipple, in the 20th year of her age. The deceased had been sick but a short while, of quick consumption. She was the daughter of Rev. W. W Knipple, of the Decatur circuit of the U. B. church. She was a good christian girl, and her untimely death has brought deep anguish to the hearts of the relatives, and sorrow to all her acquaintances. The funeral services were had at the U. B. church in Wheatland, at 9.30 this morning, Presiding Elder L. Field officiating, in the presence of a large concourse of people. The remains were interred in Pleasant IIIII cemetery, four miles east of Decatur, and were followed to the grave by a large funeral cortege. Novelties in fine Scotch Cassimerce,
